Matthew 13:40-43; Revelation 21:8; Malachi 4:1-3; Ezekiel 28:18-19; Jude 6-7; 2 Peter 2:6

4.Revelation 21:1-5

Revelation 7:9-17

___ Earth is recreated and the saints, a multitude of people that cannot be numbered, live with God forever. Much of what we know about the new earth is what will not be there like sickness, sadness, pain, death, tears etc. What will be there is beyond our imagination all prepared by someone who loved us beyond anything we can understand.

___ With all of the saved in heaven and all the lost sleeping in death, Satan is bound in a 1000 year time-out on the earth. The saved will be reigning in heaven with Jesus, being tasked with reviewing the records of every human that has ever lived, acting as an external audit that God's verdict for each person is just and true.

___ The wicked are raised to life, and this "releases" Satan from his isolation. Satan immediately sets out and deceives the lost directing them to surround and attack the Holy City, the New Jerusalem where God's saved are. Just as the battle is about to start the lost are judged and eternally destroyed along with Satan and his angels, in the lake of fire. (2nd death)

___ All of heaven rejoices that the time for the wedding of God and His people has come. The saved that have died are resurrected and along with the righteous join Jesus in new heavenly bodies, in the clouds of Heaven. At the same time the living wicked join every lost soul who ever lived in death, (1st death), and remain so until the second resurrection.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

The millennium is the thousand-year reign of Christ with His saints in heaven between the first and second resurrections. During this time the wicked dead will be judged; the earth will be utterly desolate, without living human inhabitants, but occupied by Satan and his angels. At its close Christ with His saints and the Holy City will descend from heaven to earth. The unrighteous dead will then be resurrected, and with Satan and his angels will surround the city; but fire from God will consume them and cleanse the earth. The universe will thus be freed of sin and sinners forever.
