- 7.Exodus 31:12-17;
Ezekiel 20:12,18-20

- ___ At the end of time the people of earth are warned that Judgment is coming and their only hope is to acknowledge and worship God the creator.
- ___ A careful study of the death of Jesus helps to pinpoint the seventh day and the unwavering commitment of Jesus and His followers to keeping that day holy.
- ___ The Sabbath is a day to turn away from the things of this world and focus on those things that honor God.
- ___ The fourth commandment very clearly identifies a specific day and specific behavior for humans to remember our origins and the source of our hope.
- ___ From the very first week of earth's history God patterned a rhythm for our existence in the gift of rest and connection. This gift shows us the value He places upon us and the ongoing connection He wants with us.
- ___ After sin is forever destroyed connection and worship of God will ensure life and harmony to eternity.
- ___ The Sabbath is the special sign of a covenant of salvation between God and His people.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

The beneficent Creator, after the six days of Creation, rested on the seventh day and instituted the Sabbath for all people as a memorial of Creation. The fourth commandment of God's unchangeable law requires the observance of this seventh-day Sabbath as the day of rest, worship, and ministry in harmony with the teaching and practice of Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is a day of delightful communion with God and one another. It is a symbol of our redemption in Christ, a sign of our sanctification, a token of our allegiance, and a foretaste of our eternal future in God's kingdom. The Sabbath is God's perpetual sign of His eternal covenant between Him and His people. Joyful observance of this holy time from evening to evening, sunset to sunset, is a celebration of God's creative and redemptive acts.
