LESSON 37

Marriage and Family

MATCHING (write the number of the text by the summary that corresponds)

- 1.Genesis 2:18-25
- 2.Ephesians 5:21-33
- 3.2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1
- 4.Matthew 19:3-9

- 5.1 Corinthians 7:10-14
- 6.Ephesians 6:1-4
- 7.Deuteronomy 6:5-9

___ Biblical marriage is a lifelong commitment that though it refines and tests us we are to endure and grow through it. Once married we become one in God's eyes, and He identifies adultery as the only valid reason to break this union in divorce though there are valid reasons for separation.

___ Mutual submission to each other holding the marriage as the greatest priority next to God, is a recipe for a durable marriage. Husbands are to love their wives as Christ loves the church and gave Himself up for her, wives are to respect their husbands and follow His lead as long as conscience will allow.

___ When differences of belief arise in the home after the marriage, this is an opportunity to express grace unto the conversion of the unbelieving spouse.

___ The Christian family is a critical place for children to learn to love and serve God as a way of life. These lessons are best learned by careful spiritual instruction and caught by good modeling.

___ God created Eve as a special partner for Adam. Equal, yet unique, together they were a match set created in the image of God.

___ Children are to obey their parents, but parents must be reasonable and loving. Fathers especially are cautioned to be gentle and hold out reasonable expectations.

___ A strong marriage is built on common ground. When considering marriage, a union with an unbeliever is forbidden.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

Marriage was divinely established in Eden and affirmed by Jesus to be a lifelong union between a man and a woman in loving companionship. For the Christian a marriage commitment is to God as well as to the spouse, and should be entered into only between a man and a woman who share a common faith. Mutual love, honor, respect, and responsibility are the fabric of this relationship, which is to reflect the love, sanctity, closeness, and permanence of the relationship between Christ and His church. Regarding divorce, Jesus taught that the person who divorces a spouse, except for fornication, and marries another, commits adultery. Although some family relationships may fall short of the ideal, a man and a woman who fully commit themselves to each other in Christ through marriage may achieve loving unity through the guidance of the Spirit and the nurture of the church. God blesses the family and intends that its members shall assist each other toward complete maturity. Increasing family closeness is one of the earmarks of the final gospel message. Parents are to bring up their children to love and obey the Lord. By their example and their words they are to teach them that Christ is a loving, tender, and caring guide who wants them to become members of His body, the family of God which embraces both single and married persons.
