|-------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. James 2:24 | 5.1 Corinthians 9:27 |
| 2. Colossians 1:21-23 | 6. John 15:6; Romans 11:19-24 |
| 3.1 Corinthians 3:11-15 | 7.2 Peter 1:5-11 |
| 4. Ezekiel 18:30-32 | |

_____ Jesus is the vine in whom we as branches are to remain in life giving connection. However, if we separate ourselves from Him we will be gathered and destroyed in the fire. As long as we live, no matter the past, we are able to be removed subject to our choice or grafted back in subject to our will.

_____ We are saved based on the foundation our life is built on. If we are living connected to Christ (the Rock) we are home free, however, the lives we build on this foundation will be in varying degrees glorifying to God and will stand His test depending on the quality. We must be sold out on the foundation and welcome His renovations to the building.

_____ There is never a time for a Christian to rest and retire from seeking and growing closer and more knowledgeable about Jesus. We are in enemy territory and must be on the alert, ever seeking to make our calling and election sure.

_____ Hearing and receiving salvation, the forgiveness of sins will only result in eternal salvation if the person continues in the faith, grounded and steadfast.

_____ A person who is fully committed to Jesus will be saved and he will live a life where his profession and actions bear a consistent testimony for Jesus and His ways. If a person's faith in Jesus and works do not match, the Bible calls for immediate conversion.

_____ God is a fair judge who wants everyone to turn from evil, receive a new heart and a new spirit and be saved, but those who do not turn away from evil will not be permitted to live.

____ Paul, after all he had done for Jesus, after all he had suffered did not leave his eternal salvation to rest on his works in the past, be focused forward living his life in obedient submission to the voice of God.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

Salvation has been made so very simple that even a child, perhaps especially a child can believe and be saved. Salvation is a matter of free will. God will not force anyone to be saved or keep anyone from being saved no matter what. Neither will God allow a person, a fallen angel, not even Satan himself to block or prevent a person's salvation. A person's salvation depends on their own choice. Even though a person might have made a choice to be saved or not at one time in their life, this choice will not override later choices. Sometimes those choices are not out rightly spoken but are indicated by acts of allegiance. The truth is that as long as you are alive you have the power to change your destiny. The Bible teaches us to continually cement our connection with Jesus tighter and more secure as long as we live.
