- 7.2 Corinthians 8:1-15

___ God the maker and owner of all things does not need our stuff, He asks us to give from our hearts because He knows that's the only way the gifts will be a blessing for everyone.

___ The truth is that when we put God first in all things and are open handed towards Him, everything in our lives are blessed. God cannot bless selfishness for it is the heart of our destruction.

___ Our hearts follow our investments whether they be of time or material possessions. Jesus instructs us to choose carefully warning that diversification is impossible.

___ Whenever we look at the things we possess we must realize that in reality it all belongs to God and we are to use His things for His glory.

___ People pleading for the opportunity to give, now, you don't see that every day. These early Christians were dedicated to Jesus and they patterned their lives after His and the giving flowed.

___ The tithe is holy and to treat it wrongly is to insult God to His face. God proscribed tithing for our best good, as a means to combat our selfish nature.

___ Man was created and given dominion over the earth to take care of it.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

We are God's stewards, entrusted by Him with time and opportunities, abilities and possessions, and the blessings of the earth and its resources. We are responsible to Him for their proper use. We acknowledge God's ownership by faithful service to Him and our fellow human beings, and by returning tithe and giving offerings for the proclamation of His gospel and the support and growth of His church. Stewardship is a privilege given to us by God for nurture in love and the victory over selfishness and covetousness. Stewards rejoice in the blessings that come to others as a result of their faithfulness.
