___ The immeasurable love of God provides and endless supply of grace that grants eternal salvation to all who believe in him all inclusive and independent of good deeds.

___ Before we could do anything about our condition God took the initiative to become a man, show us who God is and what extreme measures He would take to save us. He died for us and this not only exempts us from eternal punishment, but restores us to intimate friendship with God.

___ Though condemnation is deserved and used to hang over the head of every sinner, based on the death of Jesus, everything has changed. Now, those who are "in" Christ Jesus, committed to Him and live in allegiance to Him, are now free and clear.

___ It is always best for everyone if we do not sin, for sin brings pain and leaves scars, but never fear if sin catches you on its horns, no matter who you are you have a deliverer, and He has your back.

___ The gift of eternal salvation is free to all no matter their past, or present condition. God is the God of salvation, condemnation is separate from Him.

___ We can have security and confidence in the face of all judgment if we are personally connected to Jesus in a positive growing relationship.

___ God though glorious, powerful, and perfect in every way steps out of this sinless atmosphere and into our tainted hearts with the express purpose of bringing us back to life—eternal LIFE!

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

In infinite love and mercy God made Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, so that in Him we might be made the righteousness of God. Led by the Holy Spirit we sense our need, acknowledge our sinfulness, repent of our transgressions, and exercise faith in Jesus as Savior and Lord, Substitute and Example. This saving faith comes through the divine power of the Word and is the gift of God's grace. Through Christ we are justified, adopted as God's sons and daughters, and delivered from the lordship of sin. Through the Spirit we are born again and sanctified; the Spirit renews our minds, writes God's law of love in our hearts, and we are given the power to live a holy life. Abiding in Him we become partakers of the divine nature and have the assurance of salvation now and in the judgment.
